

HEADLINES

DEFENCE/INDUSTRY NEWS AT A GLANCE

Northrop Grumman has appointed Christine Zeitz as General Manager - Asia Pacific. Zeitz started her new role yesterday and will be responsible for the company's growth and performance in Australia, Japan and South Korea.

In other news, we partner with recruitment agency Quality People to gain an insight into the current defence industry job market, Naval Ship Management Australia extends its partnership with Sydney City Marine, a UNSW collaborative research project secures grant funding, RUAG Australia and Victorian SME Hisoco Engineering secure Defence Global Competitiveness Grants, Defence launches the Future Innovators Award, NIOA wins the first stage of the Land 159 Lethality Systems Project, Naval Group and ASC launch their inaugural graduate program, Northrop Grumman Corporation is chosen to build the MQ-4C Triton Network Integration Test Environment in SA, REDARC and Abaco Systems announce a collaboration, and a new Defence and Maritime Innovation and Design Precinct goes ahead in Launceston.

Ewen Levick

Online Editor

0447 961 544 | @austdefence

To check subscription and log in details, contact ADM subscriptions manager Judy Hinz. To explore content sponsorship options with ADM (as seen with Quality People below), please contact Kylie Leonard.

Follow us on LinkedIn and Twitter.

Latest News